Directions: Read the passage. Then answer the questions below.

Neha says that all of her friends have a cell phone, but Neha's mom doesn't want to buy her one. Neha's mom doesn't want Neha to play video games either. What is more, the Internet scares her. Neha's mom says, "If Neha has a cell phone, how do we know whom she is talking to? Video games are bad for you. The Internet is dangerous and uncontrolled. It's like having a gun in the house. We should just ban her from using the computer, and I'm not buying her a cell phone until she is eighteen. This is the only way we can be sure that Neha is safe."

Neha's dad disagrees with Neha's mom. Although he agrees that there are some dangers to it, he likes the Internet and finds it to be very useful. "The trouble is," he says, "We just can't stop Neha from using the Internet, as this would put her at a disadvantage. What is more, I like video games. I think that, when played in moderation, they are fun. Obviously, it is not good to play them without restraint or self-control. Finally, I think Neha needs a cell phone. We can't take these things away."

One day, an army group won a land battle against the enemy. The commander feared that the enemy's powerful air force might bomb his camp that night in revenge. So, he ordered all lights to be put out at 7. 00 PM. At midnight, the commander went around inspecting the camp. Seeing a light in a tent, he entered it.

His son, an officer under him, was writing a letter. The son explained that he was writing to his mother about his brave deeds in battle. The commander told his son to add to his letter that by the time his mother received the letter he would have been shot dead for indiscipline.
